VIRGINIA EPISODE, BRYAN SEES

By HARRIET CAMBEY. [Copyright, 1969, by American Press Asso-ciation.]

During that period when the armies of the Confederacy and of the north He Criticises Democrats in were swaying back and forth in Virginia, while in command of the -th New York volunteer Infantry, 1 was, advanced one evening into territory that had been previously held by the enemy. Near me was a house, and THEY SHOULD HAVE UNITED from the inmates I received an invitation to supper. I accepted and found a lady and her daughter, the rest of the family, consisting of two sons, being in the Confederate army. I will call them Mrs. and Miss Bates. Considering that the blockade had deprived them of all table supplies except such as could be raised in the south, they gave me a very fair meal, made up of the only chicken left by the "Johnnies" and the delicious hot bread that southern women know so well how to make.

of today is not the same bodily person as the young soldier of 1863. I had seen those southern girls fall precipiden admiration for me.

of two hostile armies, declaring that, tion," intentions, and she told me that a form for such a plan. southern general whom she spoke of familiarly as Bob and who had left

"Kiss me again, Bob."

her for perhaps five minutes, waiting raw material. for something more from the adjoining room. Presently it came in a mas. MRS. YOUNG JARS SUFFRAGETTES. culine voice:

At this the heightened color left my

There was a long walt after this, and I was beginning to fear there would be no more when I received auother installment, still in the mascuby, Clara! Kiss me!"

directing that a guard be immediately great day for the American women. thrown around the house that there might be no communication from it with the enemy, I rode at once to the Negro Commits Crime Near Marlton, corps commander.

"General," I said, "I have just passed through an experience which I interpret as follows: I have been entertained by a southern girl who pur- Marlton and heaten into insensibility. treat. There I learned, doubtless from william H. Mortland, 50 years old, was a parrot in an adjoining room, which a parrot in an adjoining room, which thus brutally treated yesterday as a had been used either for a council of part of the plan of Samuel L. Ayfield, sued, that we will be attacked before the home during the absence of the worow seems most likely."

eral. "We'll take the precaution to be town. He has not been seen since.

under arms every morning." It was half past 2 the very next . CONSECRATE NEW CHURCH. morning that an attack was made on our right, re-enforced by artillery, foi- Celebration at St. Peter's Church at Benlowed by infantry, all along the line. But as soon as the enemy saw that we they ceased firing and gradually with- take place September 22. drew. We followed and gnined a substantial advantage.

our right. This I had no difficulty to doing from prisoners captured on the field. From them I learned that the

and that his first name was Robert. having occasion to visit Virginia, I has now been paid. sought out the bouse in which the episode had occurred. Miss Bates had married General "Bob." I wrete a note asking permission to call and was Congress Makes Protest Against Occupaentertained hospitably by the couple.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, His been used for over SIXTY-FIVE VEARS by Sill-LIGHS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDRES WHILE TESTHING, with PRINTECT SUCCESS. It SOUTHES
HE CHILD, MOTTERS in GUMB, Addards in FOLKING
CURES WIND COLIC, and is the less remark for Elas.
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the west
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the west
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the west
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the west
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the west
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every pers of the HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every person
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every person
HINEA. Sold as Toroglas in every HINEA. Sold as Toroglas

LOST CHANCE

Congress

Pledges, He Derlares, Are Vio-Isted-Guilty Men He Denounces as Embezzlers,

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 15,-Denouncing as an embezzler of power the man who I was then twenty-eight years old would violate a party pledge ratified by and considered myself passably attrac- the voters of his party, William J. Brytive to women. There can be no im- an yesterday outlined his views on the modesty in my now saying so, since tariff before a large audience in Bush the wrinkled, white headed old man temple. Mr. Bryan came to Dallas at the solicitation of party leaders of the state to discuss political affairs. "Cantately in love on sight with our Yan- nonism," Mr. Bryan described as despotkee boys and was not especially taken | ism, and the speaker suggested an amend aback when Clara Bates showed a sud- ment to the rules of the House of Representatives to correct what he consid-The young lady confined the expres- ered faults, "While not denying a cansion of her attraction for me to her didate the right to repudiate a part of eyes and her speech. She would not his platform, such repudiation," he aspermit me even to touch her band. serted, "should come before the elec-though her sympathies were with the Mr. Bryan's subject was "Democracy Confederates, she hoped they would and the Tariff." He emphasized the retreat farther south. I set myself to necessity of senators and representatives work to draw from her any informa- in Congress being bound by party plattion she might possess of the enemy's forms, saving he would later suggest a

"If all of the Democrats in the Senate her only that morning had expressed and House had voted against every proan opinion that it would be some time posed increase in the tariff and for evbefore he would see her again. Con- ery proposed decrease, we might have sidering this to indicate a further re- made our fight next year upon the partreat, I was about to take my leave ty's record without making a specific for the purpose of reporting it at once declaration on items of schedules," said to my general when I heard from the Mr. Bryan. "But in view of the fact pext room the words, spoken in Mrs. that Democrats in both the Senate and the House differed as to the interpreta-Darting a glance at my companion, tion of the Democratic pistform and as I saw the blood rushing into her face, to the rates that should be imposed un-Then she started up to leave the room; der the various schedules. I believe that but, grasping her wrist, I detained her. it is necessary for our platform to be Immediately from the same room as specific and emphatic. If we expect to law in Belgium is that the earth of a before came a succession of smacks. secure control of Congress we must con-Mies Bates made another effort to free vince the public that we will, if in-herself, but I laughingly held her, say-"This is far too interesting to lose.

Please sit still."

Please sit still."

Clara! Sweetheart!" came another voice, this time a man's, but sounding rather as if it issued from a phonograph than a human being, followed

This is far too interesting to lose.

This is far too interesting to lose.

This is far too interesting to lose.

The soundance of the election, they deposit underlying his property he mater. Bring to the beling-point, so, son with one teaspoonful of lemon-jules, one half teaspoonful of and and one half teaspoonful of a teaspo and she could not get away. I held an extended argument in favor of free

"All together! Surprise 'em! Two She Will Not Attend The Dinner to President Taft in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 15 .- Just as many sufprisoner's face, and she turned pale. fragists in various parts of the country I would not now let her go on any had become elated over the fact that account. It must have been five min-utes before more came. Then it was: of the Chicago public schools, had been "Goodby, sweetheart! Goodby! Good- invited as the only woman guest to sit at the banquet to be given to President Taft on Thursday by the Commercial club, Mrs. Young cooled any expectations that she would by action champion the right of wamen to sit in the high councils of men by announcing that ahe ing of all mines and all establishments hands. A little scared look came into would not attend the diameter. would not attend the dinner. It was in "Bob, turn their right! Turn their her official capacity as head of the school right! Turn their right! Oho! Good-system that Mrs. Young was invited-by, Clara! Kiss me!" "We congratulate you," suffragists from Releasing my prisoner, I left her various parts of the country have been with a derisive "Goodby, Clara?" and, writing to Mrs. Young. "It will be a WOMAN BRUTALLY BEATEN.

N. J .- Robs The House.

Mount Holly, N. J., Sept. 15 .- Attacked in the yard at her farm home near posely gave me false information that carried to the house, gagged, bound hand the enemy in our front would again re- and foot and then placed between two war or from which orders were is colored, an employe of the farm, to rob daylight in the morning; though what man's husband on a trip to Moorstown, morning I can't inform you. Tomor- near here. The negro found a gold watch and chain and $50 in money and with "Thanks, colonel." replied the gen- these he left in the direction of Moores-nington, September 22.

Bennington, Sept. 15 .- The consecrawere under arms and ready for them tion of the new St. Peter's church will Rt. Rev. A. C. A. Hall, D. D., of Burtantial advantage.

lington, assisted by other clergy, will officiate. Rev. George Lynde Richardson came a new nation in a new country. was to learn the name of the Confed of Philadelphia, at one time rector of erate general who attempted to turn St. Peter's, will preach the consecration sermon. The rector, wardens and vestrymen invite their townspeople to this

St. Peter's parish began two years ago general was one of the youngest and the erection of a new stone church. The most aftractive in the Confederate work was pushed steadily to completion service, that he commanded a division and the church was opened for use last in a corps commanded by his uncle June, but at that time there was a debt of some $2,000 unpaid so that the church Ten years after the war ended, could not be consecrated. All this debt

OPPOSE BRITISH IN EGYPT.

tion.

now in season here vesterday, renewed in it?-Chicago Tribine. occupation of the country" by Great Britain. The congress selected Sept. 14, the twenty-seventh anniversary of the Most grateful and comforting is a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura. This pure, sweet, economical treatment brings immediate relief and refreshing sleep to skintortured and disfigured little ones and rest to tired, fretted mothers. For eczemas, rashes, itchings, irritations and chafings, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are worth their weight in gold.

CURIOUS LAND LAW.

Beyond a Certain Depth, One of the curious phases of the land ment regulations, one of which is that the owner of the surface is entitled to panion for September. B per cent of the value extracted.

The mine pays to the government an amount determined by the value and importance of the concession, after total extraction. The government the soap. names the conditions under which the mines as well as other industrial establishments shall be operated and protects and safeguards the health and lives of the workmen as well as provides for the public safety.

considered dangerous or insanitary, whether shaft or open mines, quarries, factories, coke oven plants or briquette works .- Roston Globe.

A ZULU LEGEND.

Odd Story of the Origin of This Savage People.

The Zulus account for their origin, says a correspondent of the Country Gentleman (English), by a story of a talking elephant who fed upon children. He met a woman laden with an gry, and the mother lit a fire with her fagota. She then with her ax cut away the elephant's flesh, cooked it and they the elephant's flesh, cooked it, and they instantly at the suggestion of promise all ate. As the fire burned, its great of either.

knows who was the ignorant or will- grade of wine spirits-can be madeto the London Stock Exchange.

Made Rim Tired.

corner in in."

JAPAN TO EQUALIZE TAXES

No Charges, However, Are to be Abolished

MORE INCREASES

More Salary for the Government Officers-Last Year's Income Was Underestimated by $10,-000,000.

Tekio, Sept. 15 .- In a speech to be de-Premier Jutaro Katsura will outline the proposed for the coming year to secure and the lake, of 5,000,000 yen ($2,500,000) will be ofstrative departments and any surplus vited to join the party. that may accrue will be devoted to the redemption of bonds. -----

MAGAZINE REVIEW.

Creole Chicken.

landowner beyond a certain depth does stir until well browned; then pour on landowner beyond a certain depth does gradually, while stirring constantly, not belong to him. Should the owner three fourths of a cupful each of chickductions. Unless our candidates for Con. of the surface discover a coal or gold an atock and stewed and strained to-

> A Scrub Woman at 73! "You must be old." he said.

"Seventy-three come this fall," she "And isn't there anybody to take care of you?" he asked. The smile had fallen There is not," she said-"but me."

'And when-what was it you said !when you get so still you can't work The minister of industry and labor accubbing up these offices, what are you appoints a state board of mining engi-going to do then?"

her wrinkled fase. "I don't know," she answered. "They'll put me in a pooruse or some place, I s'pose. Ain't it turrible "" "Terrible?" repeated the other. "Why terrible?" "Away from all the people ye know, widout a word wid anybody. "Tis a jail for old people. I'd be better dead, I'm thinkin. What shall we do with the old "-September Everybody's.

Alcohol at Six Cents a Gallon.

When the people of the United States ax and buadle of fagots, accompanied heard the announcement that Uncle Sam by her child. Seeing the elephant, she was about to permit the manufacture guessed his intention and pleaded, and use of denatured alcohol without the "Spare my child, oh, elaphant" The internal revenue tax, there sounded from elephant refused. "Then," said the the general throat pacans of joy and mother, "If this evil must happen praise. The fact that, in a measure, disswallow me, too, oh, elephant!" So the appointment followed has nothing to do elephant swallowed mother and child, with the satisfaction with which the anand they found themselves with all the nouncement was received. In the whole other children who were eaten pre history of the arts and of the industries viously. By and by the child grow bun- there has been no demand so insatiable heat filled the elephant with pain, and | But if disappointment was all that he ran and ran and ran till they felt first came of Uncle Sum's generosity, the thunder of his hoofs racing over nearly overybody, at least, was educated hill and valley. At length, exhausted, to understand what cheap alcohol would he dropped down dead. Using hor ax, mean. It will, therefore, require no longthe mother chopped and chopped until winded explanation to make perfectly she made an opening in the elephant's clear the meaning of the news which is now to be published for the first time in the pages of the Technical World Magazine.

Cheap alcohol is here; and the dreams and hopes of manufacturers, of farmers "Bonus" ought to be "bonum," since and of the housewife have come true, Indeed, the wildest imaginings of the it is evidently intended to mean "a most sanguine of those who saw comgood thing" and therefore should be mercial revolution in the freeing of deneuter, not masculine. The word is natured alcohol from the tax, will fall found as early as 1773, but no one short of realities. Alcohol—the highest ful aloner against Latin that Intro- is being made-has already been madeduced it, though conjecture assigns it in large quantities at a cost of six cents a gallon, including raw materials and all manufacturing processes. Out of one of the commonest, heretodown and rest in your elegant new most valuable product is being extracted, ers it a harsh language and entirely chair. Worried Husband—How can I Sawdust, which has been not only a unfitted for lovemaking. rest in that chair, Emily, when I know worthless nuisance on the bands of the Geneva, Ewitzerland, Sept. 15.—The that the man is likely to come is at lumbermen of this great lumber produc-National Egyptian Congress, which is any moment to collect an installment ing country, but which has been and is, also, a source of danger and of great expense as well, is now furnishing fuel "Young married people," says a Chi- for lighting and heating purposes which nese proverb, "should have their house cite and sell below both. From "World's Gotober Technical World Magazine.

By F. A. MITCHEL [Copyright, 1909, by American Press Asso-ciation.]

On Lake Como, in northern Italy, is a little cluster of hotels and shops called Bellagio. The place is near the boundary line between two countries, in one of which French is spoken and in the other Italian, English Americans, French, Italians and Germans all meet here, and the lingual condition is similar to that at the famous tower of Babel. The hotel and shop keepers, bontmen and others are obliged to continually express themselves in one of three or four languages. French is the prevailing tongue, with English second and German third. After having finished my education I ivered before the Bankers' club to night, decided upon a year's travel in Europe before beginning the practice of my profession, and that summer at the financial policy of the government for beight of the Italian lake season I the coming year in onticipation of the found myself at Bellagio. The hotel at annual budget, which will be adopted which I stopped was on the very verge soon by the Diet. It is generally under. of Lake Como, the water plashing stood that there will be no increase in against its stone and marble porch. On the expenditures for the maintenance of one of the tables on this porch. The the army and navy. In the adjustment lake-or rather this portion of it-is of last year's hudget the estimate of surrounded by mountain peaks, which actual expenditures over receipts shows stand out in bold silhouette against the that the prediction that the income twilight. On the other shore, a couple would be underestimated by 20,000,000 of miles away, the lights of Cadenyen ($10,000,000) was realized. Accord- abbia were beginning to gitmmer on ing to the belief prevailing here, it is the line between the mountain base

At a table on my left sat a party greater uniformity of taxation. No taxes some of the members of which were will be abolished, but thei noome tax speaking Italian, others French, Among and civil arms of the government will them was a beautiful Italian girl. They be reduced. The salaries for both the were drinking champagne and chatting military and civil arms of the govern- merrily, while I sut alone, wishing that ment will be raised. An annual saving I might even understand what they said. One of the men addressed a remark to me in broken English. I met fected by a readjustment of the admin- him more than halfway and was in-That night I dreamed of the Italian girl, Signorina Alicia Jaconti, I had carried on a spirited dialogue with her at the table, our language being onetenth Italian, one-tenth French, onetenth English and seven-tenths pantomime. Every one who knows anything about love knows that as a don-Cook four tablespoonfuls of butter key feeds on thisties so love thrives with one half shallot, finely chopped, on difficulties. A man may make love may be used if shallot is not at hand. as himself and go to sleep at the same time. There's no incentive in it. But Add five tablespoonfule of flour, and when a fellow and a girl have but a few dozen words in common and must "scratch gravel" to make themselves understood the little god empties his quiver before them.

graph than a human being, followed by a lot of unintelligible croaking.

Miss Bates writhed, but by this time

I had both her wrists in my grasp.

I had been discovered may be conceded to a let stand tan or fifteen minutes in the person of the successful than the surface swner, who may operate under overtain government of the sauce. Fundle it there was nothing for the boat think there was nothing for the boat. think there was nothing for the boatfilterate chump, while I, a college bred American, knew but one language. The signorina spoke French sum proportioned to the value of the answered, fishing around in the pail for and Italian. So, you see, there were three tongues in the party. Before starting I slipped 4 lire into the boatman's palm. He thought it was to induce him to row fast. Not a bit. I had in view a different use for him. Besides, I didn't propose that he should make me and the girl ridiculous by telling people what it was. I wanted him for an interpreter.

As soon as we were off the signorina and I, leaning back on the cushions, renewed the struggle to communicate of the evening before. It ran like this: "Eet is ver' belisimo" (beautiful) "Vous n'avez pas" (you have not) "au- fool ordinance, but Pil muzzle him. cun" (anything) "so bellissimo in Amerique."

"Not a woman in the country so beautiful as you," I replied in four lan- eral," he said, guages and a superficity of pantomime. "Ah, m'sleur!" (Clasped hands, smiles, eyes turned upward.)

It wasn't long before I had found her hand (nuder a fold of her dress where the boatman couldn't see and a current of language common to all people, felt, not spoken, ran between us with all the sprightliness of a him." bubbling breck. So for a white we sat without speaking. The boatman jogged along over the smooth waters which splashed softly against the boat. The reflection of the mountains and the heavens trembling in the lake started me again. "Votre yeux" (your eyes), I said, Boatman, what's the French for reflect?"

"'Reflechit,' monsieur." "Votre yeux reflechit les- What's the French for beaven?" "'Clel," monsleur."

"Bully." Then to the girl, "Votre yeux reflechit les ciel." "Ah, m'sleur!" The eyes went up and the hands were clasped.

Fortunately that all important word is much the same in several languages, all derived from the Latin. It is amor (love), amo (I love).

"Boatman." I began and stopped. 1 couldn't even bear to ask for a word at such a time. "Boatman," I began again, "what's that directly behind you? He turned, and I whispered with my lips close to hers: "Z'amo vot" (I love you). And so with one letter of French, one word of Latin and one of Italian

I did the trick. The signorina is now my wife and fore most uscless and despised of all the since she lives in America has been Affectionate Wife-George, dear, sit wastes in the commercial world, this obliged to learn English. She consid-

> Not His. "I don't see why Peckham should make a poor mouth all the time. He commands a good salary every week of his life." "He may command it, but his wife LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S PRIVATE TEXT-BOOK

AILMENTS PECULIAR TO WOMEN

PUBLISHED WE

THE LYDIA E PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

EVYCH MASSACHUSETTS

WRITE NOW FOR

80-PAGE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book Upon Ailments Peculiar to Women

Why You Should Send Now

This book is a treatise on all those diseases peculiar to women. They are fully explained in plain and simple language, that anyone can understand, and instructions for a complete course of home treatment.

In a word, with Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book at hand to refer to in case of need, you need have no cause for anxiety about your ailments.

The Danger of Delay

Any woman who possesses this book has at hand such information as may save her a serious illness, and if she is already ill, it will give her an intelligent understanding of her case and suggest a cure. This book is a text-book—not a mere advertising pamphlet. Until you have read it, you cannot make sure of the exact nature of your trouble. A great many women suffer from some complaint, which may not seem very serious to them, because they do not know what it is -- or to what it may lead. Perhaps you are one of these women. Do not remain in doubt another day - send for this book and find out for yourself. This book is written in the kindly sympathetic spirit that guided Mrs. Pinkham in all her actions towards her suffering sisterhood. and you will feel when you are reading it as though you were having a confidential chat with some motherly and trustworthy woman friend. Remember, your letter will be treated as strictly private and confidential and the book will be posted to you in a perfectly plain envelope, without any printing on the outside.

-FIII Up This Coupon-

Cut out this Coupon at once - while you think of it. Don't wait till by and by or you may forget it. It may be the means of saving you from years of suffering — perhaps from death itself.

Fill in your name and address and send it along to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. It will bring you Mrs. Pinkham's 80-PAGE PAIVATE TEXT-BOOK in a plain envelope by return of post, absolutely free.

When Benjamin F. Butler fived in Lowell, Mass., he had a little black gaged herself to a young tradesman and tan dog, says the Saturday Evenman to do but to row. Not much. He and Post. One morning as he was spoke French, Italian and English, the coming down the street, followed by the dog, a policeman stopped him and told him that, in accordance with an ordinance just passed, he must muzzle the dog. "Very well," said Butler. Next morning he came along with the dog, and again told him of the musaling ordinance and requested him to muzzie his dog. "All right," snorted Butler. "It is a

A POLICEMAN STOPPED HIM.

VER

Let me pass." Next morning the policeman was on the lookout. "I beg your pardon, genrest you. Your dog is not muzzled." "Not muzzled?" shouted Butler. "Not mussled;

"but I must ne-

Well, look at The policeman looked more carefully at the dog and found a THE POLICEMAN LOOKED MORE tiny toy mussile CAREFULLY. tied to its tail. "General," he expostulated, "this dog is not properly musiled." idiotic statute, and I find it says that | the pulpit and engaged in silest prayevery dog must wear a muzzle. It er, an act which rather surprised the doesn't say where the dog shall wear | congregation, who were unaccustomed the muzzle, and I choose to decorate to such procedure. Suddenly the young the tall of my dog instead of the head preacher felt some one slapping him with this infernal contraption."

Buccess. Success is the hand trained to do its

The eye that sees that the lines run The ear that hears when the truth you The brain that conceives old truths

Success is the strife with the heart aglow, The effort we make for our fellow man,
The prise that laughs at the outer show,
The soul that fulfills its highest plan.

E. H. Ellsworth in New York Inde-

A Dull Scholar.

on charges of chicken stealing. This has been emptied, the upper one filled time the magistrate decided to appeal to the boy's father. "Now, see here, Abe," said he to the darky, "this boy of yours has been up in court so many times for stealing chickens that I'm tired of seeing him "Ah don't blame yo', sah," returned here too."

"Then why don't you teach him how he won't be coming here,"

"Ah has showed 'fin de right way, sah," declared the old man earnest-"Ah has suttenly showed 'im de right way, but he somehow keeps gettin' caught comin' 'way wid dose

One of the Advantages. A pretty, highborn English girl enand never wavered in her determination to marry him despite the gloomy forecasts of her friends, who predicted lifelong misery for her. "My child, do be advised," urged one of these well meaning ladies, calling to see the radiant bride on the very eve of the wedding. "I am an older woman than you and have seen more of the world, and it always makes me sad to hear of a nice girl marrying beneath her station. It is social suicide." "Then from a social standpoint consider me dead," smiled the light hearted girl, "for I shall certainly marry the policeman Tom tomorrow. We reckoned up the situation long ago and found a whole host of advantages, but not a solitary thing could we discover to place on the disadvantage side." "Then you couldn't have searched very far, my dear," said her counselor icily. "Take my own case. Much as I love you. I shall be unable to visit you when you are married. Have you bargained for that?" The bride blushed.

"Oh, yes, indeed?" she answered hastily. "We put that down first of all."

Cheerful and Hopeful.

The men whom I have seen succeed best in life have always been cheerful and hopeful men, who went about their business with a smile on their faces and took the changes and chances of this mortal life like men, facing rough and smooth alike as it came.-Gharles Kingsley.

Consolation.

A young probationer was preaching his trial sermon in a church in one of "Yes, he is, sir," asserted Butler- the inland villages of Scotland. After "yes, he is. I have examined that finishing the "discoorse" he leaved over gently on the shoulder, and on turning round he beheld the beadle, who said: "Hoot, toot, man, dinna tak' it sae

A Canton Clock.

next time."

muckle to hert. Ye'll maybe das better

The famous clepsydra or watch clock of Canton is housed in a temple on the city walls. Three big carthen jars on successive shelves and a fourth and lowest one with a wooden cover constitute the whole clepsydra. The water descends by slow drops from one jur to another, the brase scale on a float in the last jar telling the hours as it rises. Every afternoon at 5 A negro boy was up for the fifth time o'clock since 1321 A. D. the lowest jar and the clock thus wound up for another day.

A Dilemma. "Then, Maurisio, tomorrow I will come with my wife to see you both." "Delighted! But look here. Tell your wife not to wear her new diamond earthe father. "Ah's tired of seein' him tings or my wife will at once want a

"Ob, the mischief! And my wife entry of the British into Cairo, to voice | built round so discontent can find no | Best Alcohol Made from Sawdust," in | demands it every week."-Philadelphia to act? Show him the right way, and | was only coming for the purpose of showing them off."-Il Diavolo Rosa.